sittest in thine house and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou li- est down and when thou ris-est up.

But on all other days, let the lector read 1 Peter 5, 8-9:

Brethren: be so-ber, be vig-i-lant, because your adversar-y the dev-il walketh about as a roar-ing li- on, seek-ing whom he may devour.

Re-sist him, steadfast in the faith.

After the readings, let this versicle be said.

℣. But thou, O Lord, have mercy u-pon us.

℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. Our help ✠ is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Let all present say these prayers recto tono.

A. Our Father.

Let all make a profound bow through the Confiteor.

A. I confess to almighty God and to all the Saints that I have sinned greatly in thought, word, and deed: through my fault, through my own fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beg blessed Mary ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

But then let the minister continue alone:

V. May the almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Rising, let the congregation recite together:

A. The almighty and merciful Lord grant us every pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of our sins. Amen.

Then let this versicle be said:

V. Turn us then, O God our Savior.

R. And let thine anger cease from us.

V. O God, ✠ make speed to save me.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

V. Glo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Ghost. A. As it was in the be-ginning, is now and ev-er shall be:

world without end. Amen. A. Alle-lu-ya.

But during Lent in place of Alleluia let be said:

A. Praise be to thee, O Lord, King of e-ternal glo-ry.

Let all the psalms be said under this anthem,.

Have mer-cy u-pon me, O Lord: and hearken un-to my prayer.

But during Paschaltide, let the this anthem be used:

Alle-lu- ya, al-le-lu-ya, al-le-lu-ya, al-le-lu-ya.

Let all psalms be said to this tone:

Psalm 4.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness.
Thou hast set me at large when I was in distress;
have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame?
How long will ye love vanity and seek after lies?

But know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself;
the Lord will hear when I call unto him.

Stand in awe, and sin not;
commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
and put your trust in the Lord.
There are many that say,
“Who will show us any good?”

Lord, lift thou up
the light of thy countenance upon us.
Thou hast put gladness in my heart,
more than in the time when their corn and wine increased.
I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep;
for thou Lord alone, makest me dwell in safety.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Psalm 30, 1-6.

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust;
let me never be ashamed;
deliver me in thy righteousness.
Bow down thine ear to me, deliver me speedily;

Be thou my strong rock,
a house of defense to save me.

For thou art my rock and my fortress;
Therefore for the sake of thy name, lead me and guide me.

Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me,
for thou art my strength.

Into thy hands I commend my spirit:
for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Psalm 90.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say to the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in him will I trust."

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler and from the noisome pestilence.
He shall cover thee with his feathers,
and under his wings shalt thou trust;
his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid of the terror by night,
nor of the arrow that flieth by day,
nor of the pestilence that walketh in darkness,
nor of the destruction that layeth waste at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
and ten thousand at thy right hand,
but it shall not come nigh to thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, who is my refuge,
even the Most High, thy habitation,
there shall no evil befall thee,

neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
For he shall give his Angels charge over thee to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands,
lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
Thou shalt tread upon the lion and viper;
the young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample underfoot.

“Because he hath set his love upon me,
therefore will I deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble,
I will deliver him and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him,
and show him my salvation.”

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Psalm 133.

Behold, bless ye the Lord,
all ye servants of the Lord,
who by night stand in the house of the Lord.
Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
and bless the Lord.

The Lord who made heaven and earth
bless thee out of Zion.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

For all Sundays, let the lector read Revelation 22, 4-5:

And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there, and they will need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light.

And they shall reign for ev-er and ev-er.

But on all other days, let the lector read Jeremiah 14, 9:

Thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

Let the cantor sing the hymn throughout the year.

1. To thee, be-fore the close of day, Cre- a-tor of the world, we pray, that with thy wonted fa-vor thou, wouldst be our guard and keeper now. 2. From all ill dreams de-fend our eyes, from nightly fears and fantasies: tread under foot our ghostly foe, that no pollution we may know. 3. O Father, that we ask be done, Through

Je-sus Christ thine only Son, who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and thee, doth live and reign e-ternal-ly. A-men.

On the feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary, let the doxology be said as:

3. All hon-or, laud, and glo-ry be, O Je-sus, Vir-gin born to thee:

all glo-ry as is ev-er meet to Father and to Par-aclete.

Let then this versicle be said.

℣. Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spir-it.

R. Thou hast redeem-ed us O Lord, thou God of truth.

V. Glo-ry be to the Father and to the Son and to the Ho-ly Ghost.

R. Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spir-it.

Let this anthem of the canticle be always made.

Be ye ready, like unto men that wait for the Lord, when he will re-turn from the wedding.

And let it be said always to this tone.

Canticle Nunc dimittis.

Lord ✠, now lettest thy servant depart in peace:
according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation.

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people.

To be a light to enlighten the Gentiles and to the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Let these prayers be said recto tono.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. Let us pray.

Visit, we beg of thee, O Lord, this dwelling, and drive far from it the snares of the enemy; let thy holy Angels dwell here to preserve us in peace, and let thy blessing be always upon us: through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who with thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

V. Let us bless the Lord.

R. And give him thanks.

R. Amen.

Or in English:

Hail holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
 our life, our sweetness, and our hope.
 To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
 To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us.
 And after this our exile show unto us
 the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
 O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
